

CHURCHWARDEN PRESENTMENTS

1587

We present Marie Pilsworthe to be a fornicatrix but the crime was committed in Cropwell. Our curate doth refuse to wear the surplice and did not wear it at Easter last.

1596 May 7

They say that their parson, Robert Greene is a preacher and that their curate Robert Cambell is likewise a preacher of God's word and lawfully licensed, as they think.

They say that they had 12 sermons this last year made by their said parson and others whose name they they cannot now positively remember, and that they have had the communion administered thrice this last year.

They say that Marie Pilsworth ... hath stood excommunicate by the space of two years now last Easter and ... that she was so excommunicated for fornication.

1596/7 February 27

The churchwardens there do report that they find within their parish no delinquents against the articles whereof we are to enquire by virtue of such letters as lately came from the Lords of Her Majesty's most honourable privy council but all to the uttermost of their powers are due observers of the same.

1603

Robt Greene a Mr of Arte and a public preacher by God's word is our parson.

Robt Greene has another benefice, and the West Bridgford aforesaid in the King's books is £15 and the value of his other benefice in the King's books is £13 6s 8d.

The benefices of the said Robt Greene are distant one from another fifteen miles.

There are no recusants in the parish of West Bridgford.

There are about two hundred and twenty communicants within the parish ... and no non-communicants.
